

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.
The humble Address of the Provost, Burgesses, and Freemen of your Majesty's Ancient British Corporation of Carrick on Shannon in the County of Leitrim in Ireland, on Wednesday the Twentieth Day of October, 1714.

W E your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects (in most humble Manner) beg leave to Congratulate your Majesty on your happy and peaceable Accession to the Throne of these Realms.

And as we were not wanting in expressing our Sorrows for the Death of our late gracious Sovereign Queen Ann of blessed Memory, so we were (as in most Duty bound) as early (as a People at so great distance could) in Proclaiming your gracious Majesty's Accession to the Throne of these Realms, (so justly your Majesty's undoubted Right), which we performed on Monday the Ninth Day of August last past, with all the Solemnity that a People transported with Joy could express.

And we cannot but adore the divine Goodness for this unspeakable Mercy, by which our Rights, Liberties, and holy Religion are secured to us.

As we have always thought it the indispensable Duty of all true Protestants to have a Reverence and an immortal Honour for the Memory of our late great Deliverer, King William, who (under God) relieved us from Popery and Slavery; so we cannot now but adore the divine Providence in sending a second Deliverer, and at a time when our numerous Enemies at home were daily expecting their darling Popish Pretender, supported by a powerful Prince and an avowed Enemy to our holy Religion.

We humbly take this Occasion of assuring your most precious Majesty of our unfeigned Duty and Allegiance; and as all that is valuable to us in this World depends on your Majesty's Reign over us, so we shall with our Lives and Fortunes (to the utter-most) support and defend your Majesty's Royal Person and Government against the Pretender, and all other your Enemies; humbly beseeching Almighty God that your Majesty may enjoy a long and happy Reign over us; and it is also our unfeigned Prayer to Almighty God, that your Progeny (whose Ancestors are so remarkably famous for defending and protecting the Protestant Church) may sway the Scepter of these Kingdoms and all other your Dominions until time shall be no more.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.
The humble Address of the Lord of the Manor, the Sovereign Senechal, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Ministers of the English and French Churches, and Freemen of Portlinton in the King's and Queen's County of Down.

W E your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, being deeply affected with the Loss of our late Queen (of blessed Memory) and with the just concern we had for the Security of the Protestant Succession to the Crown of Great Britain in your Highness's House, have by the particular Blessing of Heaven already seen our Sorrows abated, our Fears suddenly dissipated, and our Wishes and Prayers fully answered, by your Majesty's and his Royal Highness's the Prince's safe and happy Arrival, and of your triumphant and peaceable Accession to the Throne of your Royal Ancestors; upon which, with the highest transports of Joy and cheerful Hearts, we humbly take this Opportunity to Congratulate your sacred Majesty.

And though the greater Number of us the Inhabitants of this Borough speak with French Tongues, being driven from our Native Country by the Severities of unchristian Laws made and executed against the Reformed Churches there; yet we have steadfastly, accordingly to the Dictates of our Conscience, adhered to the Protestant Religion, and our Actions and Conduct have demonstrated to the World the Sincerity of our Hearts and Intentions, for promoting the Happiness and true Interest of your Majesty's Dominions, and to support to the utmost of our Power your lawful and rightful Title to the Imperial Crown of these Realms, which (notwithstanding the Discouragements that we and many of your Majesty's faithful Subjects have on that Account to our great Damage lately met with) we will ever defend and maintain at the Expence of our Lives and all that is dear to us, against the Pre-tender and all his open and secret Abettors.

Two glorious Prospects to us, the God has placed your Majesty at the Head of the Protestant Interest in Europe, whence we have good Reasons to hope, that not only the Church of England will ever flourish, but that all the Reformed Churches abroad will receive new Life and Vigour from your Royal Influence.

The princely Vertues that adorn your Majesty's Person, the equitable and mild Government of your Ancient People, your Piety, Clemency, and Justice, and tender and constant Care of the Protestant Religion, and your excellent Choice of an able and fair-ful Ministry, fill us with undoubted Assurance of enjoying all we can desire or wish for under the just and prudent Government of the best of Kings.

That God (by whom Princes Reign) may grant your Majesty to Live and Reign long (very long) in the Hearts of your Subjects, and that your Royal Posterity may Inherit your Honours and Vertues, and by an uninterrupted Succession may possess the Dissem, and sway the Scepter of these Kingdoms; whilst the Sun and Moon endure, are the hearty and constant Prayers of,

May it please your Majesty, Your Majesty's most dutiful and Loyal Subjects.

These Addresses were presented to his Majesty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Sunderland, Lord-Lieutenant of Ireland.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Dec. 1.
Lombard, Nov. 9. Advices here say that the Major-cans have sent to the Court of Vienna, to desire the Emperor's Directions how they shall act in the present State of Affairs; for although the French and Spaniards have yet undertaken nothing against them, they expect to be attacked very soon.

From the Lelden Gazette, dated Nov. 11.
Turin, Nov. 11. The Marriage of the Prince of Carig-nan with Mademoiselle de Sufa, natural Daughter of the new King of Sicily, was consummated the 7th Instant at Montcalier, where the Dutchess Dowager with the Duke and Dutchess of Savoy made the Wedding-Feast. His Royal Highness caused the Fortifications of Casal to be forwarded with all Diligence, and 'tis talked he will augment his Troops with some new Regiments.

Milan, Nov. 17. Provisions are grown very dear in this City, occasioned by the great Mortality of Black Cattle which still reigns in the Country hereabouts. We hope that upon this Consideration the Em-perour will abate part of the 3000 Livres which we are oblig'd to furnish daily for maintaining his Troops; and we also flatter our selves that the Impost upon Salt will be diminished. There runs a Report, that Prince Eugene of Savoy will resign his Office of Governor-General of Milan, in order to go to Hungary in Quality of Viceroy of that Kingdom.

From the Hague Courant, dated Nov. 18.
Vienna, Nov. 14. The Emperor went on Saturday to the Church of our Lady at Jetzing a League from this City, to pay his Devotions, and being returned he held a Private Council. The same Day the Brunswick Minister, the Heer van Hullenberg, had Audience of his Majesty, and delivered a Letter from the King of Great-Britain to notify his Majesty's Accession to the Crown. On Sunday we received Advice by Express, that his Britannick Majesty has named his Secretary of State Mr. Stanhope and the Lord Cobham to go his Envoys to this Court, and by what appears that Ambassy will be very acceptable to the Emperour. On Monday another secret Council was held, and Yesterday his Majesty diverted himself with Hunting the Wild-Boar. M. de Bentensiedor, Secretary of the Ambassy, is returned from Baden with the exchanged Ratification of the Treaty of Peace concluded there. 'Tis reported that he received there a Present of 10000 Livres from the French King. The Heer Gerardi, Minister of the Elector of Cologne, intends suddenly to appear in Publick. Here is much talk and various Opinions upon the Subject of the British Envoy's Commission, but most are of Opinion that a Treaty of strict Alliance between both Courts is part of it.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Nov. 27.
Schaffhausen, Nov. 25. We hear from the Frontiers of Bern and the Country of Vaud, that from the Aperture made in the Mountain Chamille by its bursting, which we formerly mentioned, there issues a great Smoke, and sometimes a Flame, and a sort of burning Earth is thrown out in such great Quantities that 600 Acres of the Land adjacent is covered with it. Now and then great Parts of the more rocky Substance of the Mountain breaks off and falls in; and on the 10th Instant terrible Noises like Thunder were heard, and since a thick red Smoke and sometimes Flames are seen to burst forth. The River likewise that ran along by this Mountain, having its Channel choked up by the Breach, has made two great Lakes near it.

Cologne, Nov. 23. Our Elector being according to the Baden Treaty to be restored to this Archbishoprick the 18th Instant, the Chapter of our Cathedral have received a Letter from the Emperor, to intimate that they must surrender the Government which they have thus long taken care of, to his Electoral Highness; and withall, that all those Offices which they have bestowed shall be enjoyed by the present Possessors, so long as they do their Duty.

Brussels, Nov. 26. We seem to agree here that the Conferences at Antwerp will be renewed as soon as M. Vander Dussen and the Count de Rechtersen are returned thither, and that the Affairs of the Barrier will soon be adjusted, being already as good as done. The Elector of Bavaria having some time since demanded of the Province of Namur and Luxemburg a Sum of Money, presses it now with earnestness, and expects from the former 50,000 Rixdollars, and proportionably from the latter.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Nov. 20.

Paris, Nov. 27. The King returns to his Catholic Majesty the Golden Fleece of the late Duke of Berry, and 'tis said the Count de Bethune is to carry it. The Count de Cezane, Brother to the Marshal Duke of Harcourt, and Knight of the Order of the Golden Fleece, died here the 10th Instant.

London, November 29.

Yesterday arrived the Mail from Holland.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Dec. 4.

Hague, Dec. 2. A Courier from Vienna going to London is passed through this Place with Dispatches from General Stanhope to his Britannick Majesty. M. Palmquist has notified to all the foreign Ministers the Arrival of the King of Sweden his Master at Stralsund the 22d of last Month. The Earl of Strarford having obtained Leave to return to London, is preparing to depart, and a Yacht is arrived in the Place to carry him over. The Duke d'Orléans will in a few Days return to Utrecht, and 'tis said that they wait only the return of an Express dispatched to the Court of France to finish the Treaty of Peace between Spain and Portugal.

From the Hague Courant, dated Dec. 5.

Brussels, Dec. 3. 'Tis advised from Dunkirk, that M. de Puy Vuban, a principal Ingenieur, is expected there, to direct and hasten the Work at Mardyke.

The other advices brought by this Mail shall be in our next.

London, November 29.

Baron Sohlenthall, Envoy extraordinary from the King of Denmark, and Signior Vicetti, Secretary from the Republick of Genoa, had private Audience of his Majesty last Tuesday, and delivered their Credentials.

London, November 29.

The Earl of Suffolk and Bindon is constituted Custos Rotulorum for the County of Kent. The Earl of Bridgewater for the County of Bucks; and Sir William Courtenay for the County of Devon.

His Majesty has been pleased to appoint Richard Munden, Esq; Brigadier-General of his Majesty's Forces, to be Governor and Captain of the Castle and Garrison of Pendennis in the County of Cornwall.

Sir Charles Peters is made Commissioner of the Customs, in the Room of Mr. Bridges, who is made Treasurer of the Excise.

London, November 29.

On Saturday South-Sea Stock was 96 three quarters, 97 to 96 seven eights. Bank 128. India 137 three quarters. African 23. New Lottery Tickets 101. 142. 6d. 101. 132. to 101. 142. 6d. In Saturday's Courant, instead of South-Sea 95 three quarters, 95 five eights, to 95 seven eights, for 96 three quarters, 96 five eights, to 96 seven eights.

The Receipts of the Lottery of 1400,000 l. give Notice, That they attend at the Bank of England daily, from 9 to 12, and from 3 to 6 in the Afternoon, to deliver out Tickets in Exchange for their Receipts.

By His Majesty's Company of Comedians.

At the Theatre-Royal in Drury-Lane, this present Monday, being the 29th of November, will be performed a Comedy call'd, The Rivals of Africa. Written by Mr. Shadwell, late Poet Laureat. The part of Sir Wm Bellind by Mr. Farquhar.

This is to give Notice, That Sir John Austen, and Henry Barker, Esq; desire their Friends the Possessors of Middletons, to meet them at the White Lion in White Chappel near the Bar, on Wednesday next the 18th of December, at 2 o'clock in the Afternoon.

Drops by a Widow on Monday last the 22d Instant, a Packet with a Leather Bag, wherein was a Note and 26 Guineas. If the Person who has taken up the same will be so good as to bring it to Mrs. Remond's backhouse on Balcon Hill by the New Garden, they shall have 50 Guineas.

The LATIN Tongue made Easy, by a practical Method founded upon Reason and Experience, free from the tedious forms of Schools, not burthensome to the Memory, requiring much Study, or minding Business, but very pleasant as well as profitable to the Learner: By which Gentlemen or other Persons of either Sex, may become capable of reading Latin into English, and English into Latin, (by their Attendance only one Hour at a time, 5 Days in a Week) in 5 Months time from their beginning to learn of W. FAZWELL, the first Proprietor of this Method, who has given entire Satisfaction to all who have heard of him. His words perfect at their Dwellings or elsewhere, agree by the Week or otherwise, and may be heard of, or sent to by Letter six, every Day, between the Hours of 2 and 4 in the Afternoon, at Bown's Coffee-house in Finch-lane near the Royal-Exchange.

Bibliotheca Selectissima: or, A Catalogue of Books in French, Latin, and English. Consisting of the best modern Divinity, History, Physics, Philosophy, Livs, Poetry, Travels, Romances, Mathematicks, &c. Mostly bound, of the best Editions, and gilt and letter'd on the Back. Which will be sold by Auction, at Willer's Coffee-house in Threadneedle-street, the Corner of Fish-lane, against the French Church, this Day being the 29th Instant, beginning at 2 o'clock every Evening, and continue till all are sold: by Samuel Ridge, Bookbinder, under St. Paul's Church, Lincoln's-Inn New-Square. Where Catalogues may be had gratis, also of Mr. Rowington in St. Paul's Church-yard, Mr. Jackson in the Postery, Book-sellers, at North's Coffee-house in King-street, and the Place of Sale.

To be Sold by AUCTION,

A Collection of fine Prints and Drawings of the best Italian French and other Masters, viz. Raphael, Carracci, Titian, Paolo Veronese, Guido Reni, Peter Tetta, Julio Bonafini, Norbert Zuccaro, LeBrun, Bordon, Coppel, Audran, Nanteuil, Parrelle, Rude, Vanduyck, Jordam, Bernham, Ollade, Rembrandt, Blouvaert, &c. Being the entire Collection of Mr. Wm Bear, Painter, of Rotterdam, lately brought from thence, and never exposed to Sale in England: this Day being the 29th Instant, at the End of Tavistock-row adjoining to the Little Piazza in Covent-Garden, where they are now to be viewed till the time of Sale, which will begin at 4 in the Afternoon, and so continue (beginning at the same Hour) till all are sold. Catalogues may be had at the Place of Sale.

A Catalogue of very valuable English Books, consisting of the best Modern Divinity, History, Miscellanies, Novels, Poetry, Plays, Travels, Voyages, Mathematicks, Romances, &c. Newly bound, and of the very best Editions. Which will be sold by Auction, at Kingston's Coffee-house, at the Corner of Rood-lane in Fenchurch-street, this Day, being the 29th of November, beginning every Evening at 5 o'clock, and will be continued every Evening till all are sold. By Thomas Dickerson, Bookbinder, at the Rose and Crown in Little-Britain, where Catalogues may be had gratis; also of Mr. Strahan over-against the Royal-Exchange, Mrs. Cuff near Mercer's-Chappell in Chancery, Book-sellers; at Barron's Coffee-house within Aldgate, at Frank's Coffee-house in King's-head-Court in Pudding-lane, and at the Place of Sale.

Whereas several Persons travelling about the City and Suburbs of London, and other Parts, with Razors, Pen-knives, Lancets, &c. marked with a Tobacco-Pipe on the Blade, pretend that the same are made by Thomas Spicer in Cranborne-Alley near Leicester-Fields, in the shop formerly of Mr. Richard Piggatt, Razor-maker, which said instruments are counterfeit, and are made by him; These are therefore to inform the Publick, that no Instruments made by the said Thomas Spicer are impoed to Sale in any part of Great-Britain, but only at his Shop at the Tobacco-Pipe in Cranborne-Alley aforesaid.

Bibliotheca Curiosa: Being a Collection of William Allen, Esq; lately deceased, Consisting of Greek, Latin, French, Italian and Spanish Books, of Divinity, Physics, Mathematicks, History, Geography, Travels, Miscellanies, Gallicks, and other Faculties. Will be sold by Auction, on Wednesday the 18th of December, at Tom's Coffee-house in St. Martin-lane: The Sale to begin at 5 o'clock precisely. By James Levi. Catalogues are to be had at Mr. Greaves's in St. James's-street, Mr. Bowley's over-against the Musae, Mr. King's in Westminster-Hall, Mr. Clark's in the Postery, James Levi at his Shop at the Golden-Eagle near the Rotunda Tavern in the Strand, and at the Place of Sale. R. S. After the Sale of Books, a very good Collection of Prints, by Italian and French Masters, will be sold, and likewise a pretty Collection of Choice Pictures in Frames.

At the Vault under the French Church in Orange-street near Leicester-fields, is all sorts of New Wines to be sold by Wholesale or Retail, viz. Branco Alicant, deep and strong, upon the Lec. Sec. at 13 l. per Hogshead; or 4 s. 6 d. a Gallon. White and Red Port and Lisbon at 5 s. 6 d. a Gallon. Portwick, in Flasks, at 3 s. 6 d. a Flask. Obion, Old and New, at 8 s. a Gallon. Canary at 7 s. a Gallon. Rhemish at 6 s. a Gallon. Chiff Flowers at 2 s. a Flask, or 3 l. a Chiff. Right Cahory upon the Lec. at 8 s. a Gallon. Right sherry, Madras, Mountain, at 7 s. a Gallon; and Champaign and Burgundy of the last Year, in French Quirt Bottles, at 2 s. 6 d. per Bottle. Also choice of all other sorts of Wines at Reasonable Rates. Note, A good Parcel of new Champaign and Burgundy are now brought over and sold here.

This Day is Published,

A Sermon Preached at the Cathedral Church of Worcester, on the 29th of November, 1714. By R. Chandler, D. D. Canon of the said Church. Published at the Desire of the Right Reverend the Lord Bishop of Oxford, Dean of the Church, the Chancellor of the Diocese, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and others then present. Printed for J. Churchill at the Black Swan in Peter-Mutter-Road. Price 4 d.

This Day is Publish'd,

A True and Correct List of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, as also of the Knights, and Commissioners of Shires, Citizens and Burgesses of the Fourth Parliament of Great-Britain: Summon'd to meet at Westminster on the 10th of November, 1713: and from thence continu'd, by several Proclamations, until the 12th of January, 1714-15. In which are inserted all the Alterations which happen'd during the two last Sessions. Also a short List of those who were Voted against the Expulsion of Richard Steel, Esq; With a Blank Margent, to insert the Alterations in the next Session of Members to Parliament. Printed for J. Roberts near the Oldfield Arms in Warwick-lane. Price 6 d.

This Day is published,

The History of the Mire and Purse continued: Wherein the Mischief &c. of the said are further described, and the Conduct of the late Ministers, that would not joyn with him, is more fully set forth, in the Discovery of several private Transactions not yet made publick. Part II. Sold by John Moxham and Stationer's-Hall. Price 6 d. Where may be had the First Part.